short biography

erick velasco farrera is principal of AVP_arhitekti, a young architectural practice located in Zagreb, Croatia with both local and international experience and recognition. Born in 1980 in Aguascalientes, Mexico, Erick graduated at the UAA Architecture Faculty with honors. He was founding partner of ARQMEDIASTUDIO, an architectural office in Mexico that has won several national awards. Later on, after working as Visiting Professor at the UAA architecture faculty, he continued his studies in Europe working in some of the most important offices in Austria and Croatia. In 2007, he decides to start his own architectural practice. A few years have passed and AVP has become one of the most promising offices in Croatia, with key national and international projects and selected built work.
